Policy on Public Information

It is the policy of the Town of Killington that open and efficient access to public information is to be encouraged, and to that end, the Town will use the Town web page and other electronic media whenever practical to publish documents of interest to the public.

Further, the policy of the Town will be to provide electronic access to applications, licenses and permits, etc over the internet to facilitate efficient processing of such documents.

All officers, boards, committees and employees shall abide by Vermont's public records law and shall not act to discourage or limit access to any public document that is not exempt from public inspection and copying under that law.

Documents produced under this policy will be subject to applicable fees as provided by state statute.
